

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

5 A system for providing a local awareness client program user with document access information describing accesses to documents by remote users. The system provides document access information describing the documents accessed by one or more remote users, the applications used to access those documents, the times the documents were accessed, and/or other information describing the documents or the access to such 10 documents made by the remote users.